ACC Greater Philadelphia Hosts Third Annual Golf and Tennis Outing

Community

On Sept. 20, 2021, The ACC Greater Philadelphia Chapter held its Third Annual Sponsor and Member Golf and (first time) Tennis Outing on a warm sunny day at the beautiful Radnor Valley Country Club just outside of Philadelphia.

Each golf foursome consisted of two sponsor golfers matched with two chapter members. The outing also featured a golf clinic for those looking to improve their golf skills.

Golf partners

Attendees enjoying cocktails

Attendees also participated in a round robin tennis tournament, as well as an in-person, socially distanced “Meet Your Counterparts” cocktail reception on the country club’s large outdoor patio following the golf and tennis outing.

Tennis round robin tournament participants

Along with many chapter members, more than 10 of the chapter’s sponsors participated. As with all ACC Greater Philadelphia events, the golf and tennis outing, clinic and networking event were free to chapter members.

Discover how to get involved with your local ACC Chapter.

Staff

ACC